

Community

Math Night

with

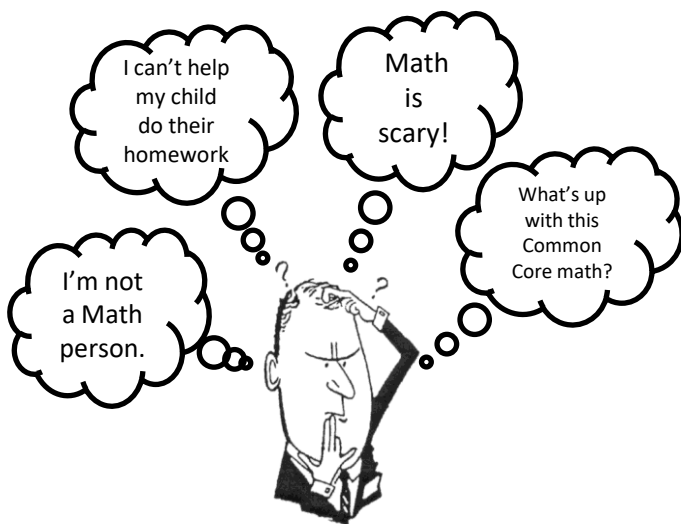

RUTH PARKER

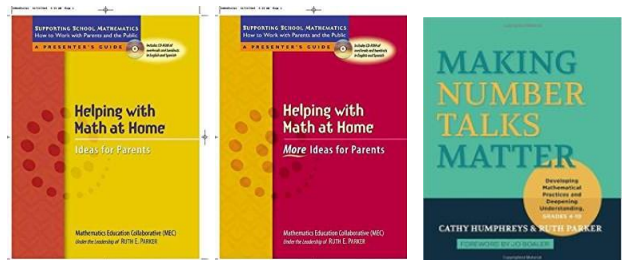

Ruth Parker is a leading expert in working with parents and the public in support of quality mathematics education in schools. She is nationally known and highly respected as a mathematics educator, professional development leader and dynamic speaker.

As a parent, teacher and professional development provider, Ruth's work is grounded in the realities teachers and parents across the country face every day.

Have you ever had one of these thoughts?
This is the event for you!

Please join us:
Tuesday, March 6th
6:00 p.m.
ACH Cafeteria
Coulee City, WA
Childcare will be available.

❖ Ruth has authored and co-authored numerous books!